European Athletics President's Welcome Message

European Athletics is delighted that the SPAR European Cross Country Championships are back in Italy for a third time with Chia hosting the 23rd edition. Fresh from Chia-Pula staging the successful European 10,000m Cup in June last year, it is wonderful to return to this coastal area in southern Sardinia as the region shows its versatility for the big athletics events, from the track in 2015 to the tricky, undulating terrain in 2016.

There is always something really special about the SPAR European Cross Country Championships because it is the final major competition of the year. Every athlete wants to go out on a high note and what a way to enter a new year it can be for that win a medal or produce personal best performances. In a sport that is so much about individual success, the team ethic plays such a big role in the SPAR European Cross Country Championships

Svein Arne Hansen
European Athletics President

with team medals in all six races. These are championships where superstars of the future can truly be born too - as Great Britain's Mo Farah showed in San Giorgio su Legnano in 2006, the last occasion Italy was the host, after Ferrara had staged the event in 1998. Farah's win that day was his first senior championship gold and he has progressed to become one of the greatest distance runners of all time. I would like to thank in advance the Italian Athletics Federation and the Chia 2016 Local Organising Committee for their continued efforts in organising these SPAR European Cross Country Championships and I would also like to thank the media, officials, athletes and our stakeholders for all their continued support.

I am sure Chia will be a great success and I look forward to being part of Europe's cross country family in Sardinia in December.

Local Organising Committee President and Italian Athletics Federation President's Welcome Message

We are proud to host the 23rd edition of the SPAR European Cross Country Championships. Chia will be the theatre, where, on 11th December, the best European Cross Country specialists from dozens of nations will fight for one of the twelve continental titles at stake.

After the previous editions held in Ferrara and San Giorgio su Legnano, the European Cross Country Championships will be hosted for the third time in Italy. The continental Championships will be held in the province of Cagliari on a fascinating course, surrounded by the typical landscape of Southern Sardinia.

Alfio Giomi
President of the Italian Athletics Federation

LOC President

Italy therefore renews a fortunate tradition, which has left in the memories and hearts of many, vivid emotions during the years.

We thank the European Athletics for assigning once again a great international event to our Country.

We also would like to thank the Institutions and the Local Organizing Committee, the media, the Competition Officials and all our Partners for their valuable support.

Eventually thanks to the athletes, who will certainly be able to make this event memorable.

Chia General Information

Welcome to Chia

The most sought after destination on the Southern Coast of Sardinia. Even if you've travelled the world, you'll still be amazed by the landscapes you witness at Chia.

Located just 40 minutes away from Cagliari, one of the most visited tourism destinations in Sardinia, Chia offers wild and untouched natural scenery that will captivate every imagination. Discover the shimmering blue waters, beautiful pink flamingos that flock to the lagoon, the lush greenery of Mediterranean nature and the golden dunes that serve as gates to the outstanding beaches around it.

The sea in Sardinia, particularly the one in Chia, is one of the most beautiful and cleanest coastlines in the world. With turquoise waters as far as the eye can see, the beaches are a wonder of nature, and an award winning asset that has won the 5 Blue Sails accolade by Legambiente. The shimmering shades in the water induce a different feeling with each glance, while the various colours of the sky bring about a new excitement every time. Complementing these sights is the distinct fragrance of the Mediterranean, which spread over the space and draw you in towards nature.

The Municipality of Domus de Maria and Chia Laguna Resort welcome you in such a magic place for the 23th SPAR European Cross Country Championships. Here you will find unique sensations, as only Sardinia can enchant you with such elegance.
